

Master Class - Course

Developing PMOs into a Profession -Your own PMO Vision and Strategy

9th of March 2020
09:00 – 12:00

About the course

Developing PMOs into a Profession Your own PMO Vision and Strategy

This unique course is targeted at PMO Managers and PMO Responsible who will after 3 hours know how their organizations are looking like today, what potentials & changes they need to do in order to do have a successful organization from today until 2025.

Specific information about your industry will be provided during the course, in order to give you the best possible outcome from the course.

You will get a certificate from AIPMO after finished course. Great opportunity to network with other PMO managers and experts.

Limited seats. English only.

Lunch is included and will be served after the workshop.

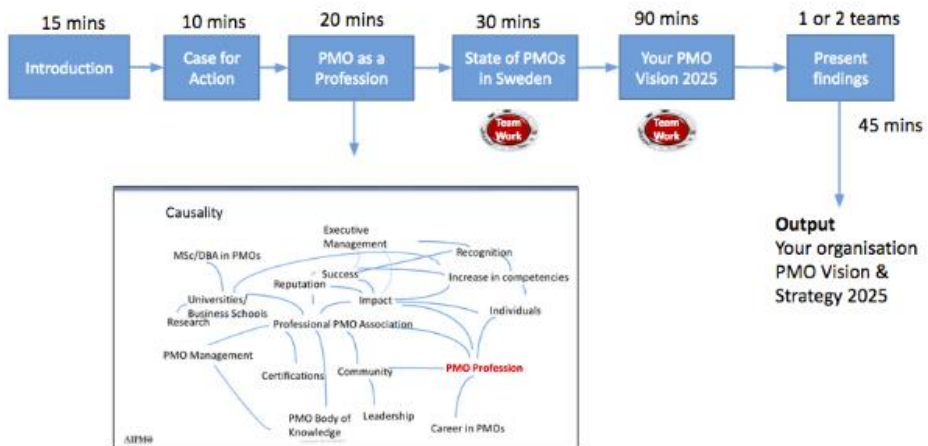

The course will be given directly before the start of the Passion for Projects Congress, the course fee does not cover the registration fee for the congress.

How does the workshop look like?

Workshop agenda

- Introduction
- Case for action
- PMO as a Profession
- State of PMOs in Sweden
- Your PMO Vision
- Present findings

Workshop Approach

Output from the course

After the finished course, you will receive:

- Your own vision and strategy for your PMO organisation from today until 2025
- Certificate of AIMPO

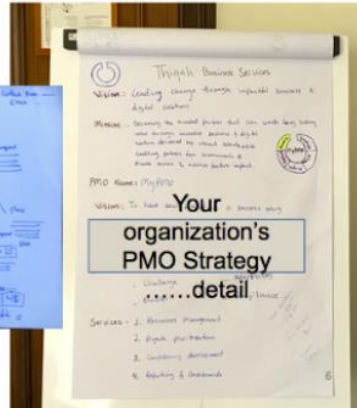

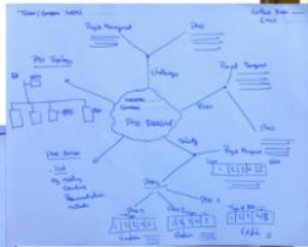

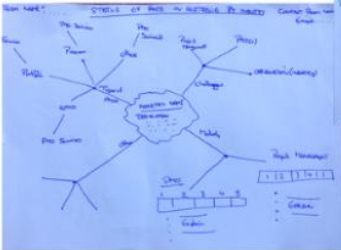

Example of identified vision and strategy created during the workshop

Learnings, frameworks, networking, plus...

Parts 4 and 5: Your organization's PMO Vision and PMO Strategy

Parts 2 and 3: Your organization's PMO Baseline

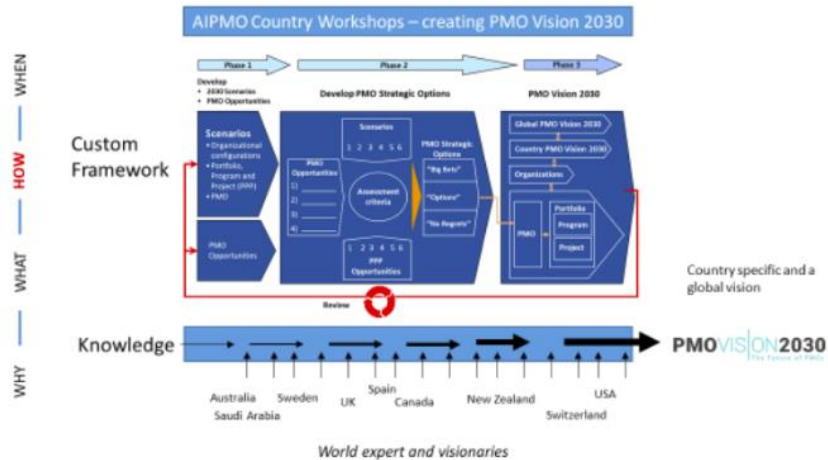

Part 1: Status of PMOs in your industry

Additional workshop in April (PMO Vision for Sweden 2030)

- Free of charge -

AIPMO is running a global initiative called PMO Vision 2030 where we are working with partners per country. For example in Australia we are working with PMI and the University of Queensland. In Saudi Arabia, the PMO Vision 2030 workshop is sponsored by Jacobs and Aramco.

In April 2020 you will get the opportunity to be part of this fantastic workshop to define the PMO Vision for Sweden 2030, and the best part of it, it's free of charge if you participate in this master class.

About the presenter

Dr Robert Joslin
AIMPO Founder

- Lecturer at SBS Swiss Business School
- 20 years in designing, initiating and program management delivery of large-scale business transformation, reengineering, infrastructure, strategy development including winning prizes for ideas and product innovation
- Consultant in telecom, banking, insurance, manufacturing and direct marketing whilst working for McKinsey & Co, Logica and own consulting company
- Author of books, chapters and research papers in the field of project, program and portfolio management. Architect of PMO BOK which comprises of seven books
- Founder/organizer of annual PMI Swiss program management conference

More information

To get more information about the course visit www.passionforprojects.org/Master-Class

Take the opportunity and book your seat today.
Limited number of seats.

BOOK A SEAT

Questions about the course?

If you have any questions related to this course please contact Mensur Zahirovic at mensur.zahirovic@pmi-se.org